

GET RHYTHM

Germany's Get Rhythm returns to South Georgia next month for its third tour of our fair state. Their latest CD, Dirty Laws, was recorded in Athens and pays us a tribute in "The Georgia Song." You gotta love a band of foreigners who sing about Waycross.

Two guitars, strong vocals and a rock and blues influence--sort of a German version of Southern boogie. Their August tour includes dates at the Wreck Room in Atlanta, Liz Reed's in Macon, and the Legion in Valdosta on Saturday, August 19. For more information on dates or to get a copy of the CD, call Davy Davis at 912/382-1145.
